

Engaging with the LeadBoston Alumni Community

There are many ways to stay in touch with classmates and to develop relationships with alumni from across class years. Here are some ideas:

Give time or resources

- Share your content expertise with staff by joining the alumni curriculum committee (more information will be shared later)
- Host an alumni event
- Interview future LeadBoston candidates
- Donate to YW Boston overall, or LeadBoston *tuition does not cover the cost of this program
- Speak at an LeadBoston info session
- Join YW Boston's Advocacy Committee - Our advocacy focus is on advancing women, people of color and in particular, women of color in leadership positions Advocacy Committee Application

Connect

- Invite classmate(s) to join you at various community events, awards ceremonies, galas, etc
- Engage classmates and the broader alumni community in completing your leadership commitment
- Ask staff for introductions to alumni who would advance your personal or professional goals
- Ask for and offer help/advice/ideas from classmates and broader alumni community
- Organize Zoom meetings, coffee, lunch or drinks with classmates
- Attend LeadBoston alumni events and YW Boston general events, bring your colleagues
- Notify staff of job changes, professional and personal achievements, new contact information
- Join LinkedIn Lead Boston Alumni Network, <https://www.linkedin.com/groups/159709/>
- Post job opportunities and board service opportunities on the alumni LinkedIn page & on YW Boston Connect
- Become an alumni ambassador, acting as a liaison between LeadBoston and your classmates and planning LeadBoston's 30th anniversary in 2021!

Promote

- Refer prospective participants to LeadBoston and introduce others to the work of YW
- Share your experience with colleagues, friends, family
- Connect staff to terrific speakers
- Celebrate classmates' achievements via Facebook, LinkedIn and other social media
- Include LeadBoston on your LinkedIn profile and resume
- Follow LeadBoston on Twitter @leadboston, connect with YW Boston on Facebook

How will you sustain and grown our alumni network?
